

Alexandrine De Bianchi

Public Policy Advisor

202.719.3125

adebianchi@wiley.law

Alexandrine has extensive government affairs and public policy experience, with a focus on telecommunications, emerging technology, data security, privacy, and spectrum policy. With prior experience as a senior advisor to a Cabinet member, members of Congress, and other senior leaders, she is knowledgeable about the intricate workings of the Executive and Legislative branches, particularly Congress.

Representative Matters

- Principal advisor to the Director of the White House Office of Science and Technology Policy concerning all congressional matters, and overall responsibility of leading, planning, and coordinating a proactive legislative strategy promoting the mission of strengthening and advancing American science and technology.
- One of the lead negotiators of H.R. 3684, Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act (IIJA), historic bipartisan legislation investing in broadband, infrastructure, and U.S. competitiveness.
- Authored and assisted in the enactment of the Middle-Mile Deployment Act, broadband legislation included in the IIJA, the Drone Infrastructure Inspection Grant Act, the Broadband Parity Act, and the Data Mapping to Save Mom's Lives Act.
- Advised White House and congressional staff on legislative and congressional matters.
- Represented the recording industry before members of Congress, congressional staff, state elected officials, and their staff.

Practice Areas

Privacy, Cyber & Data Governance

Public Policy

Telecom, Media & Technology

Credentials

Education

M.A., George Mason University

B.S., Rochester Institute of Technology

Professional Experience

- Director for Legislative Affairs, The White House, Office of Science and Technology Policy (2023-2025)
- Senior Policy Advisor, Office of U.S. Senator Jacky Rosen (2019-2023)
- Telecommunications Specialist, National Telecommunications and Information Administration, Office of Congressional Affairs (2018-2019)
- Congressional Black Caucus Fellow, U.S. House of Representatives, House Committee on Energy and Commerce, Subcommittee on Communications and Technology (2016-2017)
- Owner, DC Patisserie, L.L.C. (2013-2016)
- Director, Federal Government Relations, Recording Industry Association of America (2008-2012)
- Senior Legislative Assistant, Office of U.S. Representative Hank Johnson (2007-2008)