

Ashley L. Cossaart

International Trade Analyst

 202.719.3758
 acossaart@wiley.law

Ashley specializes in U.S. trade remedy proceedings, with experience analyzing complex data and supporting the enforcement of antidumping and countervailing duty laws. In her previous positions, she has analyzed complex data submissions, verified the accuracy of reported information, and contributed to investigations and administrative reviews across a wide range of industries. Ashley has experience drafting key agency documents, managing multifaceted AD/CVD cases, and coordinating with stakeholders, including outside counsel and interagency partners. Her background also includes roles in international policy, media relations, and legal support, providing her with a broad foundation in economic, political, and trade issues.

Representative Matters

- Assist in the development of trade cases by providing data analysis regarding the effects of unfairly traded imports on market share, prices, and U.S. industry financial performance.

Professional Experience

- International Trade Compliance Analyst, Class of 2022
Presidential Management Fellow, U.S. Department of Commerce (2023-2025)
- Program Assistant, Media Relations, The Embassy of Canada (2022-2023)
- Intern, Bureau of Economic and Business Affairs, U.S. Department of State (2021)

Practice Areas

Antidumping and Countervailing Duties/
Trade Remedy Cases
International Trade

Credentials

Education
M.A., Johns Hopkins University SAIS
B.A., The University of Kansas
Languages
French

- Program Assistant, Political Relations, The Embassy of Canada (2020-2021)
- Project Assistant, Litigation, Private Law Firm (2019-2020)
- Policy Assistant, Trade and Economic Department, The Embassy of Canada (2018)