Azhan assists, advises, and advocates for clients in a variety of matters. He monitors complex underlying disputes and crafts arguments on coverage issues for insurance clients; represents lawyers in legal malpractice claims and provides legal ethics advice to law firms; and produces in-depth analysis on administrative law for corporate clients. Azhan excels at distilling complex facts into a concise summary, developing novel legal theories, and creating compelling arguments for both written briefs and oral presentations in court.

In 2024, Azhan was named a firm Pro Bono All Star for performing 150+ hours of pro bono service, and he received special recognition for his work on a housing conditions matter.
