Brooke is the managing senior associate of Wiley's Health Care Practice. She advises clients on complex service contracting, with a deep expertise in pharmacy benefit management (PBM) agreements for commercial and government-sponsored health care programs, including Medicare, Medicaid, and the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (FEHBP). Her practice focuses on health care contracting and negotiation strategy, regulatory compliance, and dispute resolution.

Brooke also advises non-health care clients on a broad range of health care regulatory, privacy, transactional, and litigation matters. Prior to joining Wiley, Brooke represented major manufacturing clients in complex litigation and advised for-profit and exempt organizations on a wide variety of corporate matters, including the drafting and negotiation of various commercial agreements and advising on corporate compliance and governance issues.
