

Hannah Bingham

Associate

 202.719.3455
 hbingham@wiley.law

Hannah advises political candidates, officeholders, corporations, trade associations, and other organizations on compliance with all areas of federal, state, and local political law, including campaign finance, lobbying, pay-to-play, ethics, and election administration.

Representative Matters

- Counsels clients on federal, state, and local lobbying compliance, including registration and reporting.
- Reviews political contributions for compliance with campaign finance, lobbying, and pay-to-play laws.
- Advises clients on federal, state, and local pay-to-play laws.
- Reviews political advertisements for campaign finance compliance, defamation issues, and other concerns.
- Counsels clients on ethics and gift laws related to provision of food and beverages, travel and lodging, entertainment, and other expenses to government officials.
- Maintains an active pro bono practice representing and counseling nonprofit organizations in a wide variety of matters.

Professional Experience

- Law Clerk, Office of U.S. Senator Chuck Grassley (R-IA), U.S. Senate Committee on the Judiciary (2018)
- Judicial Intern, the Honorable Charles Lettow, U.S. Court of Federal Claims (2018)

Practice Areas

Election Law & Government Ethics

Credentials

Education

J.D., Georgetown University Law Center
B.A., summa cum laude, University of Kentucky; Phi Beta Kappa

Law Journals

Executive Editor, American Criminal Law Review

Bar and Court Memberships

District of Columbia Bar

- Research Assistant, Georgetown Annual Review of Criminal Procedure (2018)

Affiliations

- The Council on Governmental Ethics Laws (COGEL)
- Women in Government Relations

Recognitions

- Included in The Best Lawyers in America directory of "Ones to Watch" for Government Relations Practice (2026)