

Isaac J. Wyant

Associate

202.719.4705

iwyant@wiley.law

Isaac represents corporate clients and individuals in federal court cases at both the trial and appellate levels.

Through his government and white-collar practice, Isaac frequently handles high-profile disputes involving private parties and government entities. He challenges and defends laws under the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) and other government-adjacent litigations. Isaac also defends individuals and companies in criminal cases and government investigations by the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) and other Executive agencies.

Representative Matters

Litigation:

- Represented a mutual bank in federal court litigation to defend against a hostile takeover attempt.
- Successfully represented a national political party in securing the denial of a preliminary injunction in the critical days before the 2024 presidential election.
- Represented a telecommunications company in a multibillion-dollar False Claims Act litigation.
- Successfully represented firearms trade associations and manufacturers in high-stakes challenge to agency rulemaking.
- Represented an aftermarket auto parts seller in challenge to NHTSA adjudication.
- Represented global company in a government contract dispute before the Federal Circuit.

Practice Areas

Litigation

White Collar Defense & Government
Investigations

Issues and Appeals

Credentials

Education

J.D., Harvard Law School

B.A., California State University,
Sacramento

Law Journals

Articles Editor, Harvard Law School Journal of Law and Public Policy

Bar and Court Memberships

District of Columbia Bar

Maryland Bar

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit

U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland

- Authors amicus briefs in federal and state appellate courts on issues of administrative and constitutional law.

White Collar:

- Represented U.S.-based arms broker in separate State Department and Department of Defense investigations.
- Represented former corporate officer of a large data marketing company in connection with multiple criminal investigations and prosecutions.
- Represented former executives in the life sciences field in multi-agency federal fraud investigations.
- Represented a government contractor navigating a far-reaching FCA investigation.

Professional Experience

- Judicial Intern, the Honorable Trevor McFadden, U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia (2020)
- Director, HAVE Alaska (2018-2020)
- Captain, Infantry Officer, United States Marine Corps (2013-2018)

Affiliations

- The Federalist Society
- Military & Veterans Legal Center

Recognitions

- Named by The Legal 500 US a "Recommended Lawyer" (2024) in Dispute Resolution: Corporate Investigations and White-Collar Criminal Defense