

Jacob Garten

Associate

202.719.3400

jgarten@wiley.law

Jacob counsels clients on international trade matters, focusing on antidumping and countervailing duty proceedings. Jacob has experience with high-profile cases involving antidumping and countervailing duty investigations across various industries such as paper, steel, metal products, and building materials, during his time in private practice and serving as a lead case analyst for the U.S. Department of Commerce.

Representative Matters

- Writes comments and briefs, outlining positions during antidumping and countervailing duty proceedings before the DOC.
- Assisted with cases regarding exports from Mexico and China.
- Analyzes margin drivers and evaluates different scenarios in antidumping investigations and reviews through SAS.
- Conducts International Trade Commission trend analysis, including the use of Dataweb data and lost revenue/lost sales analysis.
- Served as lead case analyst on multiple high-profile antidumping and countervailing duty investigations.
- Led multiple circumvention inquiries involving China.

Professional Experience

- Private Law Practice (2023-2024)
- Department of Commerce (2017-2022)

Practice Areas

International Trade

Antidumping and Countervailing Duties/
Trade Remedy Cases

Credentials

Education

J.D., Seton Hall University School of Law

B.A., Indiana University

Bar and Court Memberships

District of Columbia Bar

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit

U.S. Court of International Trade

Languages

Portuguese

- Senior International Trade Compliance Analyst
- U.S. Army (2006 - 2010)

Affiliations

- Member of Federal Circuit Bar Association
- Member of Customs and International Trade Bar Association

Recognitions

- Received Star Award from the Assistant Secretary of Enforcement and Compliance