Tatiana combines high-level experience in complex litigation and arbitration with a deep understanding of international, comparative, and human rights law to assist clients in avoiding, navigating, and resolving disputes involving investments in emerging markets, space and satellite technology, renewable energies, and the healthcare sector.

Named to “DC’s Power Women of Law” List by DCA Live (2024), Tatiana specializes in developing a comprehensive understanding of her clients’ business goals and needs to craft tailored strategies to win high-stakes, bet-the-company litigations and arbitrations, adhere to internal and external stakeholder expectations, and avoid incurring reputational or operational risk.

Prior to joining Wiley, Tatiana served as a Legal Adviser to Judge Rosemary Barkett on the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal in the Hague, advising on complex, politically sensitive state-to-state cases, and as a law clerk to the Honorable M. Margaret McKeown, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.
