

Vaibhavi Patria

Associate

202.719.4667

vpatria@wiley.law

Vaib counsels and represents government contractors on a broad range of legal issues, including bid protests, contract claims and disputes, national security, and compliance issues.

Representative Matters

- Regularly represents clients in bid protests and interventions at the Government Accountability Office (GAO) and the United States Court of Federal Claims (COFC).
- Successfully represented a government contractor in defending a $1.3 billion contract for intelligence and cyber operations solutions.
- Assists government contractors in navigating regulatory requirements related to cybersecurity and supply chain risk management.
- Assists with internal investigations relating to issues unique to government contractors, including cybersecurity compliance and alleged violations of the FCA.
- Represents government contractors in a variety of disputes with the government, including claims and terminations.

Professional Experience

- Private law practice (2021)
- Research Assistant and Assistant Counselor, Foundation of Hope (2018-2020)
- Opinions Columnist, University of Pittsburgh – The Pitt News (2017-2020)

Practice Areas

Government Contracts

Credentials

Education

J.D., with honors, The George Washington University Law School

B.A., summa cum laude, University of Pittsburgh

Law Journals

Member, Federal Communications Law Journal

Bar and Court Memberships

District of Columbia Bar

U.S. Court of Federal Claims

Certifications

Federal Communications Bar Association (FCBA) TMT Law & Policy Certificate

Languages

Hindi