

Myron Zhang

Associate

 202.719.3440
 mzhang@wiley.law

Myron represents corporations and individuals in complex matters across the entire spectrum of dispute resolution fora, including before federal agencies, state and federal courts, and arbitral tribunals. He has experience in all stages of federal and state litigation, from trial court discovery disputes to motions practice to appellate brief-writing.

He also maintains an active pro bono practice focusing on immigration and civil rights issues.

Prior to joining the firm, Myron served as a legal extern with the Massachusetts attorney general's office in the Constitutional & Administrative Law division.

Representative Matters

- Defended a major shipbuilder and government contractor against an antitrust class action in the Eastern District of Virginia.
- Represented a high net worth individual in employment arbitration proceedings.
- Assisted a prominent NGO in submitting an amicus brief to the Sixth Circuit in support of its First Amendment freedom of association rights.
- Represented a pro bono criminal defendant seeking a writ of certiorari from the U.S. Supreme Court.

Professional Experience

Practice Areas

Litigation
Issues and Appeals
Global Disputes

Credentials

Education
J.D., cum laude, Harvard Law School
B.A., Yale College

Law Journals
Executive Editor, Harvard International Law Journal

Bar and Court Memberships
District of Columbia Bar

- Intern, Massachusetts Attorney General's Office - Constitutional and Administrative Law Division (2025)
- Teaching Fellow, Harvard Law School (2025)
- Teaching Fellow, Harvard College and Law School (2024)
- Intern, U.S. District Court, Northern District of California (2023)

Affiliations

---

- Asian Pacific American Bar Association of the Greater Washington, D.C. Area (APABA-DC)
- Mentor, Asian Pacific American Bar Association Educational Fund (AEF)