

MEDIA MENTION

Greta Peisch Testifies Before the U.S. House Ways and Means Committee on American Trade Enforcement Priorities

February 25, 2025

Greta M. Peisch, partner in the International Trade Practice, testified before the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Ways and Means, Trade Subcommittee on American Trade Enforcement Priorities.

In her testimony, Greta discussed three main priorities for tackling both unfair import competition and barriers facing U.S. exporters abroad, including:

- Sufficient tools and resources, including updated statutory authorities and adequate personnel dedicated to enforcing trade laws.
- A comprehensive strategy to combat the nonmarket policies and practices of the People's Republic of China, which has targeted strategic sectors for dominance, undermining critical industries of the United States.
- Advancing an enforcement agenda that promotes U.S. economic security and leadership.

To watch the full testimony, click here.

Some recent coverage of Greta's testimony includes:

- Greer's Senate verdict awaits; Ways & Means to tackle enforcement issues; Trump sits with Macron

February 24, 2025 | Inside U.S. Trade

Related Professionals

Greta M. Peisch
Partner
202.719.3378
gpeisch@wiley.law

Practice Areas

International Trade
Tariffs & Trade Policy
Trade Policy and Trade Negotiations

- Congress Evaluates Trade Enforcement Priorities as Two New Bills Come Under Consideration

February 26, 2025 | Alliance for American Manufacturing