

MEDIA MENTION

Tim Brightbill Comments on U.S. Solar Manufacturers' Request for Probe into Chinese Tariff Evasion Through Ethiopia

Reuters, POLITICO, Nikkei Asia, PV Tech, Solar Power World, PV Magazine

May 12, 2026

Timothy C. Brightbill, co-chair of the International Trade Practice, discussed a request from U.S. solar manufacturers for a probe into potential Chinese tariff evasion through Ethiopia with multiple media outlets. Recent coverage includes:

- US solar panel makers seek tariff probe on Ethiopia

May 12, 2026 | Reuters

- Solar manufacturers target China-linked components from Ethiopia

May 12, 2026 | POLITICO

- US solar panel makers request a look at surge in Ethiopian exports

May 12, 2026 | Solar Power World

- Solar firms in US allege Chinese tariff evasion through Ethiopia

May 13, 2026 | Nikkei Asia

Related Professionals

Timothy C. Brightbill
Partner
202.719.3138
tbrightbill@wiley.law

Practice Areas

Antidumping and Countervailing Duties/
Trade Remedy Cases
International Trade

- US manufacturers files AD/CVD case against Toyo Solar and Origin Solar in Ethiopia

May 13, 2026 | PV Tech

- U.S. solar makers accuse Toyo and Origin Solar of duty evasion in Ethiopia

May 14, 2026 | PV Magazine