Timothy C. Brightbill, co-chair of the International Trade Practice, was quoted by multiple news outlets regarding the U.S. Court of International Trade's May 7 ruling that the Trump Administration unlawfully used Section 122 of the Trade Act to impose a 10% global tariff on most U.S. imports. The ruling was a "decisive rejection of the president's use of Section 122 tariffs," noted Brightbill to The New York Times in the article, "Trade Court Rules Trump's 10% Global Tariff Is Illegal."
