

Oklahoma Bans Contributions during Regular Legislative Session

---

November 2008

Effective November 1, Oklahoma now bans lobbyists and lobbyist employers from making or soliciting contributions to state legislators and candidates for the state legislature during a regular session of the Oklahoma legislature. The contribution and solicitation ban covers the session itself through five days after the session ends.