

Farewell, Andrew!

November 2013

Congratulations to our valued colleague Andrew Woodson, who is set to start at the Federal Election Commission (FEC) on December 9 as Executive Assistant to Commissioner Lee Goodman. Commissioner Goodman took office at the end of October and is slated to be Chairman of the FEC next year. While we are all very sorry to see Andrew go, we wish him well in his new endeavor, which will no doubt broaden his horizons and his expertise in federal election law. Good luck, Andrew!
