

Wiley Rein Attorneys Partner with Lawline for "Federal Contracting: A Five-Part Series"

Spring 2014

Wiley Rein has partnered with Lawline, the largest provider of online continuing legal education (CLE) in the country, to create a series of pre-recorded webinars. In the series, attorneys discuss unique issues, challenges, and opportunities associated with M&A transactions involving U.S. government contractors. Participants will learn critical business and legal considerations that can significantly impact transactions involving U.S. federal contractors. Courses include:

- Surveying the U.S. Government Contracts Landscape
- Allocating the Deal Risk
- Classified Contracts, FOCI, CFIUS and Export Controls
- "FAR" from Home: Federal Acquisition Regulation - Part 1
- "FAR" from Home: Federal Acquisition Regulation - Part 2

The courses are available for purchase at wileyrein.furthered.com.
