Wiley Rein Recognized for Pro Bono Efforts Assisting the Homeless

November 5, 2007

At a reception held on November 1, 2007, Wiley Rein was recognized for exceptional volunteer work on behalf of the (WLCH).

Once a month, Wiley Rein attorneys and paralegals conduct intake for the clinic, meeting with potential new clients and providing legal assistance to the homeless and near-homeless. Wiley Rein attorneys have worked with the Legal Clinic for more than 12 years, providing numerous clients with legal guidance on such issues as housing, disability, benefits and public assistance.

The firm is proud to support the activities of the WLCH as part of its pro bono outreach in the community.
