

PRESS RELEASE

Wiley Rein Debuts New Website

July 6, 2009

Wiley Rein is pleased to announce the launch of our newly designed website, www.wileyrein.com. Visitors will find the latest information on the firm and its practices, emerging legal issues, upcoming events and attorney speaking engagements, as well as our most recent publications and newsletters.

As part of our ongoing efforts to keep clients and the general public informed, our new website features frequently updated and well-organized content along with enhanced, user-friendly search capabilities. Visit our site to find a professional, subscribe to firm newsletters, RSS feeds and client alerts, and more.

Wiley Rein prides itself on providing superior service to our clients and our website is an extension of that commitment. We invite you to visit us at www.wileyrein.com, and share with us your thoughts and comments.
