

PRESS RELEASE

Communications Attorney Edgar Class Receives Member Spotlight Honor from the Hispanic Bar Association of DC

May 22, 2012

Wiley Rein Communications Practice attorney Edgar Class was featured in the Member Spotlight section of the Hispanic Bar Association of DC's newsletter based on his success at the firm and his professional development work. Mr. Class was noted for his leadership in serving as co-chair of the committee responsible for overseeing the Federal Communications Bar Association's Federal Communications Law Journal, and also as chair of the HBA-DC's Professional Development Committee. In addition, Mr. Class was cited for his help in organizing a number of HBA-DC programs, including panel discussions and workshops designed to provide career guidance for Hispanic attorneys. Only four individuals per year are chosen for the Member Spotlight honor, and selection is based on "community involvement, professional development and leadership."

Related Professionals

Edgar Class
Partner
202.719.7504
eclass@wiley.law

Practice Areas

Telecom, Media & Technology