

PRESS RELEASE

Wiley Named Republican Lawyer of the Year by RNLA

February 20, 2004

Washington, DC—Richard E. Wiley, managing partner of Wiley Rein & Fielding LLP, has been named by the Republican National Lawyers Association (RNLA) as this year's "Republican Lawyer of the Year." This award recognizes Wiley's professional accomplishments and his dedicated service to the Republican Party.

The RNLA is a 1,900-member organization of lawyers and law students from all 50 states. Mr. Wiley is a member of the RNLA Board and a Co-Chair of its Judicial Advocacy panel.

The award will be presented at a February 23, 2004 reception held in Wiley's honor. WRF partners Fred F. Fielding, Jan Witold Baran and Helgi C. Walker are among the evening's co-hosts.
