

PRESS RELEASE

Megan Brown Appointed to NAW Legal Policy Center Advisory Board

April 28, 2025

Megan L. Brown, co-chair of Wiley's Privacy, Cyber & Data Governance Practice, has been selected to join the National Association of Wholesaler-Distributors (NAW) Legal Policy Center's (LPC) advisory board.

Brown will serve as a legal resource to the LPC in their work to represent the wholesale distribution industry in precedent-setting litigation and the wider judicial system.

Established in 1946, NAW is one of America's leading trade associations, representing the $8.2 trillion wholesale distribution industry. The LPC serves as a key legal resource for NAW members, helping them navigate the regulations and laws that impact their business.
