

PRESS RELEASE

Three Wiley Partners Recognized Among Savoy Magazine's 2024 'Most Influential Lawyers'

August 5, 2024

Washington, DC – Wiley Rein LLP, a DC law firm, is pleased to announce that partners Dorthula H. Powell-Woodson, Antonio J. Reynolds, and Diane Holland have been named to Savoy Magazine's 2024 "Most Influential Lawyers" list. Savoy is a leading publication that recognizes some of the nation's most influential lawyers and business executives, and serves as a critical platform in driving positive dialogue on and about Black culture.

This year's "Most Influential Lawyers" are a "powerhouse roster whose legal prowess and commitment to excellence inspire the highest levels of corporate and legal leadership," according to Savoy.

"We are proud to congratulate Dot, Antonio, and Diane on being recognized by Savoy for their many accomplishments on behalf of clients and throughout the legal community," said Chief Diversity Officer Rashida MacMurray-Abdullah. "Their efforts to foster and promote diversity, equity, and inclusion reflect Wiley's commitment to promoting a culture of belonging, all while delivering best-in-class legal services."

Powell-Woodson, who co-leads the firm's Health Care Practice, counsels clients on matters at the intersection of health care, government contracting, and statutory and regulatory compliance. Her practice focuses on all major government health care programs, including Medicare, Medicaid, the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program, and TRICARE, and on federal statutory and regulatory requirements applicable both to government and commercial health

Related Professionals

Dorthula H. Powell-Woodson
Partner
202.719.7150
dpowell-woodson@wiley.law

Antonio J. Reynolds
Partner
202.719.4603
areynolds@wiley.law

Diane Holland
Partner
202.719.3338
dgholland@wiley.law

Rashida MacMurray-Abdullah
Chief Inclusion and Engagement Officer
202.719.3305
rmacmurray-abdullah@wiley.law

Practice Areas

Health Care
Telecom, Media & Technology

care offerings.

Reynolds, partner in the Telecom, Media & Technology (TMT) Practice, represents financial services companies and other major corporations, as well as their officers and directors, in civil and criminal enforcement matters before federal and state agencies. He advises clients in matters involving the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, the Federal Trade Commission, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Reserve Board, and state attorneys general.

Holland, partner in the TMT Practice, advises clients on broadband, media and consumer protection issues, with a focus on broadband affordability, equal employment opportunity requirements, broadcast licensing, and robocall enforcement. She previously served as Special Advisor for the Wireline Competition Bureau at the Federal Communications Commission, and has over 20 years of experience working in the federal government.

Diversity, equity, and inclusion are core pillars of Wiley. The firm is committed to fostering a culture of belonging that reflects the rich diversity of the firm's legal and professional talent. To read the firm's 2023 Diversity Report, please click here.