Wiley Named Pro Bono and Social Impact Leader by Law360

October 15, 2025

Wiley has been recognized among Law360's Pro Bono and Social Impact Leaders, which ranks the nation's top law firms that demonstrate exceptional commitment to social responsibility.

For the third consecutive year, Wiley was ranked for its pro bono service in recognition of its long-standing commitment to advancing access to justice. The firm was also recently honored with its second consecutive Beacon of Justice Award from the National Legal Aid & Defender Association for its pro bono work addressing critical needs of communities and families.

Law360's Social Impact Leaders list is one of three rankings examining what makes law firms leaders in the field, along with Law360's Prestige Leaders and Pulse Leaderboard. The rankings evaluate firms across employee engagement, pro bono service, responsible business practices, and more.
