

PRESS RELEASE

Wiley Once Again Honored for Commitment to DC Community

June 12, 2025

Wiley has once again been named to Washington Business Journal's annual Corporate Philanthropy list, which honors companies and nonprofits making a meaningful impact through charitable giving and civic engagement across the DC region.

This year, Wiley ranked sixth and was the only law firm recognized in the midsize category. The firm has been included on the list nearly every year since 2014, underscoring its dedication to supporting the local community.

Wiley was honored at the 2025 Corporate Philanthropy Awards on June 4 in Washington, DC.