

Security and Privacy in our 5G Future: A Discussion with CTIA Experts

Wiley Connected
March 19, 2020

Wiley Connected has CTIA's John Marinho and Melanie Tiano in studio for a discussion of security and privacy in 5G. As connectivity explodes and devices multiply, what is the fuss about and what is government and the private sector doing about it? Join Megan Brown and Kat Scott as they break down 5G privacy and security with our special guests.
